Huntsville, AL (April 21, 2010)-- This Earth Day, Friday, April 22nd, Bridge Street Town Centre and Earth Fare Supermarket are teaming up to present a day of eco-friendly fun and promote a green community. All activities are free and events for kids and adults will be located throughout the Centre, including cooking demonstrations with Humble Heart Farms and SmokeHouse Restaurant from Noon to 4:00pm, and live music from local artists, Brother Ric and Faro Davis until 4pm. Lexus of Huntsville will have the new CT Hybrid 11 model on display. Huntsville's Green Team will also be on site at 11am to show how we can keep Huntsville beautiful and eco-friendly and they are bringing a friend, Seymore, a Robot on a Green Mission. SOCA Galleria Art Studio will have sidewalk chalk for the children to create their own masterpieces "on" Bridge Street.

Several stores are featuring some of the newest Earth Day products on Friday. Mountain High Outfitters invites everyone to visit their Earth Friendly Display, plus enjoy a kid friendly project while you are in the store. Le Gourmet Chef has items to make your own soda. The Walking Company is featuring Umberto Raffini Bamboo socks, La Dolce Vita has some beautiful eco friendly jewelry, and the Fossil Store has watches that never require a lithium battery.

Come out and celebrate Earth Day with Bridge Street Town Centre and Earth Fare Supermarkets and help keep our community green!
