Huntsville, AL (December 7, 2009) - A one-of-a-kind dining experience is now open just in time for the Holiday Season. SmokeHouse Restaurant, located across from Monaco Pictures at the north end of Bridge Street Town Centre, provides a distinctive dining experience in a fun, exciting environment. The menu features a contemporary take on classic southern cuisine, with a special emphasis on BBQ.

Guests can enjoy the indoor dining area with an elegant, rustic and family friendly atmosphere, or weather permitting; they can dine al fresco in the expansive patio bar area. The restaurant is open seven days a week, from 11am to 11pm, serving lunch and dinner. It also offers three private dining areas which are able to accommodate up to 100 people between them.

Led by renowned southern chef, Bill Stellwagen, SmokeHouse Restaurant offers a menu featuring southern classics like Alabama Catfish with a contemporary flair. From tantalizing BBQ and fabulous steaks to beautifully prepared salads and desserts, SmokeHouse provides a wide variety of options that will satisfy even the most discerning pallets.

"We are excited to offer our customers yet another unique dining option at Bridge Street with the addition of SmokeHouse," said Rochelle Allgood, General Manager of Bridge Street Town Centre. "Whether it is family dinner night or a night on the town with friends, we strive to continue offering a variety of distinctive retailers and restaurants to North Alabama."

About Bridge Street Town Centre

Bridge Street Town Centre, in the heart of Cummings Research Park in Huntsville, Alabama, is a 550,000 square foot retail lifestyle center that features a 14-screen Monaco Pictures, a 210-room Westin Huntsville Hotel with 35 luxury residences occupying three of the top floors, 133,000 square feet of office space, a 10-acre lake that features gondola and pedal boat rides, and a majestic full-size carousel. The Centre features several retailers unique to the area, including: Apple, Juicy Couture, Lucky Brand Jeans, Anthropologie, J. Crew, P.F. Chang's, and Cantina Laredo.

O&S Holdings, LLC, was formed in 1992 by Gary Safady and his cousin Paul Orfalea, who founded Kinko's Copies. O&S Holdings and its affiliates own more than eighty properties in the United States, including the Louisiana Boardwalk--a 550,000 square foot waterfront entertainment and outlet shopping center anchored by Bass Pro Shops Outdoor World and a 14-screen Regal Theater. Also under development is the 4 million square foot Bridge Street Town Centre in Will County, Illinois.
